

Ashby Life - December Article

We moved!!!

We are finally in our new purpose built health centre and now we just need to work out where to put everything! Seriously, we would all like to thank you for your patience and understanding whilst we have been packing and moving. It is very much appreciated and we are sure that everyone will benefit.

Everyone at Castle Medical Group wishes you a
Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

